CHAMBER FOUNDATION ESSAYS

Must complete both!

Essay #1- The positive outcome of our investment in you!

A scholarship is an investment in you! Explain how this investment will have a positive impact on you, your chosen career, and on our local communities. (200-400 words double-spaced)

Essay #2- Interview a Local Business Owner

Set up a person-to-person interview with a small to medium-sized business owner to discuss the reason or reasons that s/he has decided to locate a business in this area. Your interview should uncover the opportunities and challenges of owning a small business in a community like ours. Your essay should suggest ways that this business owner might change his or her current business to make it even more attractive or successful. (200-400 words double-spaced)

This interview MAY NOT be with a member of your immediate family.**
